National Severe Weather Warning Service

Chief Forecasters Assessment
Narrow bands of heavy, thundery showers are affecting parts of southeast England, especially Kent and Sussex, where they are likely to line up into bands and produce locally around 30 mm rainfall within a few hours.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Rain

Valid from 20:45 on Fri, 10th Oct 2014 until 04:00 on Sat, 11th Oct 2014

Heavy showers will be persistent and thundery at times through this evening and overnight. The public should be aware of the risk of some localised surface water flooding. Lightning and hail may be additional hazards.
